

Privacy Notification

Final Tournament

Privacy Notification

Accreditation Request for the UEFA Women's EURO™ 2025

Identity of the Data Controller	Union des Association Européennes de Football (UEFA), whose offices are located at Route de Genève 46, 1260 Nyon 2, Switzerland, acting as data controller on its Football Administration and Management Environment (FAME) platform in accordance with the UEFA Accreditation Terms and Conditions ("Terms and Conditions"). Capitalised terms used but not defined in this Privacy Notification are defined in the Terms and Conditions in the context of which this Privacy Notification must be taken note of and read in the accreditation application process.
Categories of personal data	When submitting an application for accreditation, data subjects are requested to provide the following personal data: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • First name(s) as in ID Document • Surname(s) as in ID Document • Date of birth (dd.mm.yyyy) • Gender • Nationality • Place of origin (for Swiss national) or place of birth (for non-Swiss national) • Current residential address (street, number, post code, city, country) • ID document type • ID document number • Personal mobile telephone number • Personal email address • Colour photograph

	When attending the Event and/or the Match(es) , your voice, image and likeness may be recorded during your time at the Event venue and/or the Match(es) ("Recordings").
Purposes of the processing	The personal data are collected and processed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) for the purposes of processing the application for accreditation and, if such application is successful, providing the data subject with an accreditation permitting access to the Event and/or the Match(es). (ii) for the purposes of performing and managing your access to the Event venue and/or the Match(es). (iii) for the purposes of any relevant safety, security and sanitary measures related to the Event and/or the Match(es). The Recordings are used for the purposes of public reporting and promotion of the Event and/or the Match(es).
Legal basis	The personal data are processed on the basis that such processing is necessary in order to process your application for accreditation and provide you access to the Event and/or the Match(es) in accordance with the Terms and Conditions. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Legal basis for the data processing is Article 31 (2) (a) of the FADP. The personal data are processed for the purpose of the legitimate interest of ensuring relevant safety, security and sanitary measures related to the Event and/or the Match(es) (in particular, with regard to transferring personal data to the UEFA member association(s) in whose country the Event is taking place (the "Host Association") for your background screening by the competent security authority as well as processing the result of the background screening as described below. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Legal basis for the data processing is Article 31 (1) of the FADP. The use of the Recordings is necessary for the purpose of the legitimate interest of public reporting and promotion of the Event and/or the Match(es). <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Legal basis for the data processing is Article 31 (1) of the FADP.
Failure to provide the data	You are free to apply for an accreditation and provide personal data to UEFA. If you do not provide personal data, you may not be able to apply for and/or be provided with an accreditation for the Event and/or the Match(es).

Categories of recipients	You understand that the personal data will be processed within UEFA and its subsidiary UEFA Events SA (UEFA's service provider in relation to the accreditation process) and/or Women's EURO 2025 SA (a joint-venture company established under Swiss law by UEFA Events SA and the Swiss Football Association, and which is established for the planning, preparation, staging, organisation and dismantling of the UEFA Women's EURO™ 2025), by their employees and any third party appointed by them to assist in the organisation of the Event and/or the Match(es). Technical service providers may access certain personal data for the sole purpose of maintaining the security and performance of FAME. Third parties authorised by UEFA in each case (e.g., broadcasting, press) may process, exploit and publicly reproduce the Recordings for the purposes of public reporting and promotion of the Event and/or the Match(es). The relevant owner/operator of the Event venue(s) and/or the stadiums, the security and access service providers and any such other providers which help to organise the Event and/or the Match(es) and maintain safety and security (including in relation to sanitary measures) may access certain personal data for the purposes of providing their services. The Host Association for the Event is the Swiss Football Association (Association Suisse de Football, Schweizerischer Fussballverband, Associazione Svizzera di Football), whose offices are located at Workstrasse 48, 3074 Muri bei Bern, Switzerland. UEFA transfers your personal data (first name(s), surname(s), date of birth, place of origin or place of birth, gender, nationality (if requested), current residential address (street, number, post code, city, country), ID document type, ID document number, organisation name/ your function at the Event) to the competent security authority/-ies for the Event for the purpose of carrying out necessary background screenings (if deemed necessary in order to safeguard the security of the Event). Your personal mobile telephone number and email address will only be transferred to the Host Association for communication purposes. Please see below regarding specific information for background screening by the competent security authority/-ies and above regarding UEFA's legal basis for the data transfer. Host Association's legal basis for the data transfer to the competent security authority as well as the transfer of information on any findings with respect to the background screening as described
--	--

	below is the legitimate interest in ensuring the safety and security concept for the Event (Article 31 (1) of the FADP). Please find the general Privacy Policy of the Host Association here (in German).
Onward transfer	UEFA will not, in principle, transfer your personal data to countries outside of the European Economic Area (EEA). In the event of a transfer of personal data to the recipients identified above located in a country which does not ensure an adequate level of protection within the meaning of applicable data protection laws, UEFA (i) have put in place European Commission approved standard contractual clauses to protect your personal data and/or (ii) will rely on your consent (where permitted by law). To learn more about those safeguards, please contact us at: privacy@uefa.ch.
Specific information regarding background screening by the competent security authority/-ies	The background screenings will be carried out by the competent security authority/-ies in the context of the Event taking place in the host cities of Zurich, Lucerne, Bern, Thun, Basel, Sion, St. Gallen, and Geneva, in accordance with the relevant legal basis for background screenings in the federal and applicable cantonal laws, acting as independent data controller in this context. It is the data subject's free decision to consent to such data processing in accordance with the relevant legal basis for background screenings in the federal and applicable cantonal laws by the competent security authority/-ies. However, in case of refusal and the background screening of data subjects is deemed necessary in order to safeguard the security of the Event, accreditation cannot be granted by UEFA. The data subject has the right to withdraw the consent at a later stage. In this case, however, any accreditation granted up to that point would have to be withdrawn and the data processing up to this point had been lawfully based on the data subject's consent. The competent security authority/-ies check on basis of the personal data received whether there is any information on the data subject opposing the accreditation for security reasons or whether there is no information in this regard. The competent security authority/-ies will give a final overall assessment to the Host Association. In this respect, the Host Association is informed whether there are any findings opposing the accreditation for security reasons. However, the Host Association will not be informed of the nature of the findings. The decision on

	accreditation is made solely by UEFA following information provided by the Host Association. Your contact data (personal email address as well as mobile telephone number) will not be transferred to the competent security authority/-ies. UEFA and/or the Host Association will only process the email address for sending (again) the relevant data protection information for your documentation or any relevant information regarding the background screening/accreditation process. UEFA and/or the Host Association will only contact you via your mobile telephone number, if being informed of any findings opposing the accreditation for security reasons by the competent security authority/-ies to directly inform you without including any supervisor and/or to let you know about the final accreditation result. For further information on the background screening process by the competent security authority/-ies, please see here: Declaration of consent to background screening using database enquiries
Your rights	The data subject may access, update or delete their personal data by contacting us at: accreditation.weuro@uefa.ch The data privacy team can be contacted at: privacy@uefa.ch. In addition, data subjects have certain rights in accordance with Chapter 4 of the FADP, depending on the legal basis and the purpose of the processing, in particular the right of access (Article 25 of the FADP) and the right to data portability (Article 28 of the FADP). Data subjects have also the rights that are set out in Article 32 of the FADP.
Retention period	The personal data is only collected and processed by UEFA for no longer than is necessary for the purposes described above, unless the use of such personal data is further required for ongoing administrative or judicial proceedings relating to the Event and/or the Match(es) or, where necessary, for preventing or detecting unlawful actions. UEFA will, in particular, generally delete your personal data processed in the context of accreditation after four (4) months after the termination of the Event, unless longer required by the competent security authority/-ies.
Personal data obtained from others	IF YOU SUBMIT PERSONAL DATA ON BEHALF OF OR FOR OTHERS, YOU CONFIRM HAVING A LAWFUL BASIS FOR THE SUBMISSION (E.G., CONSENT OR CONTRACT) AND HAVING INFORMED THEM OF THE

	CONTENT OF THIS PRIVACY NOTIFICATION PRIOR TO DATA CAPTURE. YOU ACCEPT THE RESPONSIBILITY OF INFORMING EACH PERSON OF THESE RULES AND PROCEDURES. UEFA IS ENTITLED TO REQUIRE AT ANY TIME EVIDENCE OF SUCH LAWFUL BASIS AND OF THE PROVISION OF SUCH INFORMATION.
Additional information	You understand and acknowledge that your personal data is being collected and processed in accordance with the Accreditation Terms and Conditions , the FAME Terms and Conditions and the UEFA Privacy Policy , which is available at https://www.uefa.com/privacypolicy/index.html .
Definitions	FADP: Swiss Federal Act on Data Protection RS 235.1

UEFA
ROUTE DE GENÈVE 46
CH-1260 NYON 2
SWITZERLAND
TELEPHONE: +41 848 00 27 27
TELEFAX: +41 848 01 27 27
UEFA.com

WE CARE ABOUT FOOTBALL
